

North Carolina State Education Assistance Authority

Privacy Statement of NCSEAA

This Web site is co-hosted and maintained in part by the State Education Assistance Authority, a political subdivision of the State of North Carolina (hereinafter "the Authority"). Together with College Foundation, Inc., and Pathways of North Carolina, the Authority is committed to protecting the privacy of visitors to the College Foundation of North Carolina Web site (hereinafter "the CFNC site"). Accordingly, the majority of Web pages provided by the Authority through the CFNC site are accessible to Internet users without their providing or our collecting any nonpublic personal information. The Authority may track the Internet addresses of the domains from which Internet users (i) visit the Authority's portions of the CFNC site, (ii) exit from the site and (iii) how they flow through the site. While the Authority may collect and analyze this information for user trends and Web site composition, as well as compile statistics regarding usage of the site, throughout this process each individual user remains anonymous.

In order to provide certain online services for you and to respond to your inquiries about the Authority's programs, the Authority may request and collect "nonpublic personal information" from you. "Nonpublic personal information" means personal information that identifies you and is not available from public sources. Such information may include your name together with your mailing address or electronic mail address and any information that you submit on an application for a scholarship, grant or loan. We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information about you to anyone except as may be required or permitted by applicable federal or State law. Since the Authority is an agency of the State of North Carolina, some nonpublic personal information may be subject to disclosure under the Public Records Act, Chapter 132 of the General Statutes of North Carolina. However, any information that reveals an account number for electronic payment as defined in G.S. § 147-86.20 and obtained pursuant to Articles 6A or 6B of the General Statutes is protected from disclosure under the Public Records Act and will remain secure for the limited time during which such information is retained by the Authority in order to complete the requested electronic payment transaction.

We restrict access to nonpublic personal information about you to Authority employees and to our agents and contractors, who need to know the information, in order to provide services to you.

While you are at our Web site, we may use "cookies" or other similar files to temporarily store information on your computer's hard drive. The stored information will not be personally identifiable; it will be used solely to facilitate your movement through our Web site and will be cleared when you log off.

This Privacy Policy may be updated periodically, and in the event of any such update the revised policy will be posted to the CFNC site in a timely manner. In addition, the Authority may provide individuals participating in its programs with annual notice of its Privacy Policy to the extent required by applicable federal law.
