

State Programs for Students Attending UNC System Universities

North Carolina Education Lottery Scholarship Program

The North Carolina Education Lottery Scholarship program was created by the 2005 General Assembly to provide financial assistance to needy North Carolina students attending eligible colleges and universities located within the state of North Carolina. It is offered by the North Carolina State Education Assistance Authority through College Foundation, Inc.

Eligibility

An applicant must (1) be a North Carolina resident for tuition purposes; (2) meet all eligibility requirements for a Federal Pell grant, except the Expected Family Contribution (EFC) requirement; and (3) enroll for at least six credit hours per semester as an undergraduate student in a degree, certificate or diploma program at an eligible North Carolina post-secondary institution.

Students who have already earned baccalaureate (four-year) college degrees are not eligible. Students must meet the Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) requirements of the institution that they attend. NC Education Lottery Scholarships are not available for summer sessions.

Value

Award amounts vary according to information that is reported on and generated from the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA); award amounts will be prorated for recipients enrolled less than full-time. For the 2009-10 academic year, individual awards will range from $100 to $3,400 for the year and will assist an estimated 30,000 students.

Application Procedure

Applicants must complete the FAFSA and list at least one North Carolina college, university, technical or vocational school in the release section of the form.

Notice of eligibility and award amount will be communicated by the school as a part of each student's financial aid package. Eligibility and awards are determined annually. To be considered, applicants must file the FAFSA each year they attend school.

University of North Carolina Need-Based Grant Program

University of North Carolina Need-Based Grants are available to North Carolina residents who demonstrate financial need and are enrolled at one of the 16 constituent institutions of the University of North Carolina. The grant program is offered by the North Carolina State Education Assistance Authority through College Foundation, Inc.

Eligibility

An applicant must (1) be a North Carolina resident for tuition purposes; (2) meet all eligibility requirements for Federal Title IV aid; and (3) enroll for at least six credit hours per semester as an undergraduate student in a degree, certificate or diploma program at an eligible North Carolina post-secondary institution.

Students who have already earned baccalaureate (four-year) college degrees are not eligible. Students must meet the Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) requirements of the institution that they attend. UNC-Need Based Grants are not available for summer sessions.

Value

Award amounts vary according to information that is reported on and generated from the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA); award amounts will be prorated for recipients enrolled less than full-time. For the 2009-10 academic year, individual grants will range from $200 to $3,800 for the year and will assist an estimated 60,000 students.

Application Procedure

Applicants must complete the FAFSA and list at least one campus of the University of North Carolina in the release section of the form. No formal deadline has been established, however, applicants should meet the priority deadlines established by their selected institutions. Late applicants may be denied if insufficient funds are available.

Notice of eligibility and award amount will be communicated by the school as a part of each student's financial aid package. Eligibility and awards are determined annually. To be considered, applicants must file the FAFSA each year they attend school.

Continued on back

North Carolina Student Incentive Grant Program

The North Carolina Student Incentive Grant is offered by the North Carolina State Education Assistance Authority through College Foundation, Inc.

Eligibility

An applicant must (1) be a North Carolina resident for tuition purposes; (2) meet all eligibility requirements for a Federal Pell grant; (3) enroll on a full-time basis as an undergraduate student in a degree, certificate or diploma program at an eligible North Carolina post-secondary institution; and (4) be an undergraduate who demonstrates substantial financial need as assessed through the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

Students who have already earned baccalaureate (four-year) college degrees are not eligible. Students must meet the Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) requirements of the institution that they attend. NC Student Incentive Grants are not available for summer sessions.

Value

The annual individual award available for the 2009-10 academic year is $700 and the grant program will assist an estimated 9,000 students.

Application Procedure

Applicant must complete and file the FAFSA and list at least one North Carolina college, university, technical or vocational school in the release section of the form. The deadline for applying is March 15 of each year; however, funds are typically exhausted by the end of February.

Notice of eligibility and award amount will be communicated by the school as a part of each student's financial aid package. Eligibility and awards are determined annually. To be considered, applicants must file the FAFSA each year they attend school.

For more information and assistance, visit CFNC.org or call toll free 866-866-CFNC.