COLLEGE REDIRECTION POOL

Colleges are looking for you!

Did your college plans change or get a slow start? It's not too late, because many colleges are looking for students just like you!

The College Redirection Pool can help match you with North Carolina community colleges or four-year colleges and universities.

How It Works

- 1 Visit CFNC.org/Redirection.
- 2 Click on the "Register for CRP" button.
- 3 Login or create a CFNC.org account.
- 4 Enter some basic information about yourself including your high school, test scores, and your intended major.

Who is Eligible?

- Anyone who wants to attend a North Carolina college this fall.
- Denied applicants who are open to being matched with another North Carolina school with open admissions spots.

The redirection pool is available from April 1 thru August 31.

While you keep an eye on your inbox for colleges reaching out to you, be sure to check out CFNC's College Search and college transfer resources.

Don't forget to apply for financial aid, too! Visit studentaid.gov.
